

Biography

Vanessa Perrée

General Director of the management and collection agency assets seized and confiscated

Born in Neuilly-sur-Seine in 1974

Holder of a master in general private law and a certificate in criminal sciences from Paris II University, Pantheon-Assas Vanessa Perrée joined the National School of Magistracy in 1997.

She's graduated from the National Institute of Advanced Studies in Security and Justice.

In 2000, on leaving the ENM, she served as deputy public prosecutor at the Lille judicial court.

In 2003, she was appointed to the Ministry of Justice in the direction of criminal affairs and pardons.

In 2006, she returned to court as deputy public prosecutor at the Paris judicial court in the anti-terrorist section.

In 2011, she became a judge to the Court of Appeal of Fort-de-France in charge of presiding over the court of criminal cases.

In 2014, she was appointed deputy prosecutor general at the Aix-en-Provence Court of Appeal and then inspector of justice in 2018.

In September 2020, as deputy public prosecutor, Vanessa Perrée first took charge of the public health, environment and collective accidents sections and then the national jurisdiction for the fight against organized crime.

In June 2022, she became justice advisor in the office of Prime Minister Élisabeth Borne.

On January 1, 2024, she joined agrasc as general director.

Ms. Vanessa Perrée has been decorated with the National Order of Merit since May 2, 2017.